A. Introduction to the Sunshine Law

City Attorney Andriene Treasure provided a presentation on the Sunshine Law, including its definition, requirements, exceptions, and penalties for violations. Committee members asked questions which were addressed in detail by Attorney Treasure.

B. Social Services Ad Hoc Kick-off meeting presentation

Neighborhood Services Director Terrie Franklin provided a presentation on the history of the Harry T. Moore Social Service Center, including an overview of the center's background, community gap analysis and survey data, current services, and outcomes from the 2026 Community Care Resource Fair. Ms. Franklin emphasized the importance of identifying service gaps, addressing community needs, and developing solutions. Committee members asked questions regarding previous surveys and the feedback received, which were addressed accordingly.

C. Chairperson and Committee Discussions

Chairman Dr. Gina Beckles and all members present introduced themselves and shared their reason for joining the committee. Member Gary provided his background working within the community, and remarked that support will be needed from City Council for the services needed. Member Oliver provided her background working within the community and the jail system and provided input on better use of space. Member Pinder provided her background within the community and previous volunteerism serving community dinners when North Brevard Charities was operating from Center and would like to see improved services for the elderly. Member Davis provided her background on community connections including previous work at North Brevard Charities and provided input regarding more things that could be done at the Center. Member Monifa Watson, Director of North Brevard Charities Sharing Center, described servicing the community at many levels and she was here to lend her talent and abilities to bring the Center back. Member Stokes described herself as an advocate and author and was here to bring fresh ideas. Member Dennison described herself as an advocate for domestic violence with the Women's Center and is serving to bridge the gaps of services. Chairman Beckles provided her background working within the community and other City Boards and was here to help bring the Center back from underutilization and identify gaps.

Discussion ensued amongst the members on how to identify service gaps, methods of surveying the community, and contents of any proposed surveys. Members shared ideas and observations. Neighborhood Services Director Terrie Franklin will provide past survey results with the Committee ahead of the next meeting. The Committee proposed the following agenda items for the next meeting: identify service gaps and a community survey.

Chairman Dr. Gina Beckles asked for motion on public comment time limits. A motion was made by Member Erica Davis to limit public comment to two (2) minutes; motion failed for lack of a second. Member Nancy Oliver made a motion to limit the public comment time limit to three (3) minutes, motion seconded by Member Monifa Watson. Motion passed unanimously by voice vote.
